

Mrs. Shawntae Grant

Shawntae Grant is the daughter of Isaiah and Christine Manigault. She is the middle child of two sisters. She was born and raised in Awendaw, SC. She loves people and enjoys reading, comedy, board games, and traveling. September of this year she and her husband will celebrate 8 years of marriage. They relocated from Charleston, SC to Marietta, GA in 2015 where they purchased a Tax Franchise. After completing a few tax seasons, they made a decision to sell the business. She is now the Co-Owner of Grant Capital Enterprise, LLC and focus more of her efforts on educating the community on financial literacy as well as developing leaders in the industry.

Shawntae received her BS degree in Political Science and minored in Pre-law from Lander University. She also studied Social Science at Winchester University in England. She has worked in the financial services industry for 10 years now. Among her passion for teaching and training she is intentional about becoming who God created her to be. Shawntae desires to use her gifts and talents to bring glory to God and encourage people to release the potential of greatness that lives on the inside of them!

Licenses: Insurance Agent Producer, Broker Regulated by FINRA, Investment Company & Variable Contracts Producers License, and Securities Agent State Law License